

Friday July 22nd 1904 at 7:15 pm.

A dinner was held, on the above date at the Crown Inn when an excellent address was given by Mr. W. J. Peake Mason who is the Conservative Candidate for North Somerset, Colonel Llewellyn M.P. having decided to retire from Parliamentary life.

Colonel V. Rolleston occupied the chair, and amongst those present were:

Mr. W. J. Peake Mason, Rev. R. C. Bomford, Messrs R. W. Clifton
S. V. Rolleston, Nelson Fedden, J. C. Lock, Arthur Trenfield,
Albert Ford, S. Crawshaw, J. Ollis, J. Roach, J. Roach,
A. Highnam, B. Ollis, J. Redwood, J. Ferber, Lavington,
Clothier & J. H. Clifton (Hon. Secretary)

An excellent repast was served by Mr. Exell.

The Chairman proposed "The King" & said his Majesty had done more than anyone to bring about a good feeling between England and foreign Countries; he then introduced Mr. W. J. Peake Mason.

After Mr. Peake Mason's address Mr. R. W. Clifton proposed the health of the Chairman and said that it was owing ^{to the Colonel} that they were holding that dinner.

The Colonel replied.

Mr. Fedden proposed the Health of Mr. Jack Clifton (Hon. Sec.)
Mr. Ferber who was thanked for his voluntary assistance, ably presided at the piano and a number of capital songs were sung during the evening

Smoking Concert

A smoking concert was held on Friday October 13th 1905 at the Bird and Hand under the auspices of the Association. Colonel Rolleston presided over a large attendance which included Mr Peake Mason, Col. W. Hobbs, Dr Willett

Mess ^{rs} Nelson Tedden.	J. Bartlett.	J. C. Locks.
S. V. Rolleston.	J. Crawshaw.	J. Whittuck.
A. V. Board.	R. Rogers.	Albert Ford.
W. H. Board.	S. Roach.	F. R. Forster.
Jack Clifton.	W. Castle.	E. J. Bath.

The Chairman welcomed Mr Peake Mason and said they were very glad to have him at Saltford.

Mr W. J. Peake Mason, who was received with applause then addressed the meeting.

During the evening the following gentlemen sang.

Mess^{rs} J. Whittuck, R. Treasure, J. Board, Griffiths, D. Dudley, J. H. Clifton, Walter Stockwell, Mr Lock of Keynsham gave a capital reading, Mr Crawford played a Violin solo, Mr Slade a Cornet Solo. Mr Monk presided at the piano.