

Salford's Area of Great Landscape Value

A Photographic Record

This collection of photographs provides a snapshot of the rural countryside setting that the Green Belt surrounding Salford's housing boundary provides.

"We must put a proper value on the natural world: it would be odd to cherish a Constable but not the landscape he depicted"

'This Common Inheritance' Britain's (first) Environmental Strategy (1990)

© Salford Parish Council, March 2024.

All photographs © Phil Harding.

All rights reserved.

Fields north & south of Bath Rd A4 and Copse Road

View north from the Bath Road A4 (February 2024)

View south from behind Copse Road; Grange Road on the left (December 2022)

Fields south of Bath Rd A4 and Copse Road (continued)

View south from PROW footpath behind Copse Road (December 2022)

View south from PROW footpath behind and west of Copse Road looking east to Grange Road with Cotswold AONB on the horizon (December 2022)

Fields south of Montague Rd / Manor Rd

View south from Montague Road; Longwood on left (April 2020)

View south-eastwards from Manor Road (lane); permissive footpath & bridleway in foreground, Longwood on horizon (October 2022)

Fields south of Montague Rd / Manor Rd

Northern reach of Longwood as viewed from fields above Montague Road that lie directly west of Longwood. Cotswold AONB forms distant setting and backdrop (June 2015 & May 2020 below)

Longwood Lane views

Looking west from the lane, c.mid point of Longwood (July 2021)

Looking west towards Keynsham from the wood & lane (May 2020)

Fields south of Manor Rd immediately north of golf course

Viewed looking south from Manor Rd (May 2013)

Viewed looking south west from Manor Rd; Longwood on RH side of photograph (May 2013)

Viewed looking east towards Cotswold AONB from top west side of fields (May 2013)

Southern edge of golf course and fields south of course

View westwards along southern edge of golf course; Longwood on horizon (May 2020)

Top (south) central semi-natural area (May 2020)

Looking east from east side of golf course (June 2021)

Fields at the southern (top) end of Saltford South

West field immediately north of Gypsy Lane; Longwood on right (August 2019)

Fields above Longwood, east of Longwood Lane & south of golf course (in Corston) (April 2020)

Fields at the southern (top) end of South Saltford

View eastwards from Longwood Lane over arable fields to Cotswold National Landscape AONB (March 2020)

View eastwards from Longwood Lane to Cotswold National Landscape AONB (October 2016)

View NE from top of Longwood Lane / Ashton Hill to golf course parkland, Folly Wood & Cotswold National Landscape AONB (June 2020)

The northern side of south Saltford as it becomes north Saltford

View eastwards from Bath Road A4. Northern end of Folly Wood in view (July 2022)

Bristol to Bath Railway path, near the Bird in Hand PH, north Saltford (May 2017)

Fields of north Saltford

© Phil Harding

View eastwards from footpath behind St Mary's Church, north Saltford, with Cotswold ridge in background (July 2015)

St Mary's Church and Saltford Manor viewed from PROW footpath (April 2020)

Fields of north Saltford

Field viewed from PROW footpath near Wessex Water STW (May 2018)

Avon Farm field (April 2021)

Fields of north Saltford bordered by the River Avon

Fields on north side of Saltford at dawn (April 2020)

Avon Farm field margin, north side of Saltford (May 2021)

North side of Saltford

River view from PROW footpath by Avon Farm, north side of Saltford (April 2018)

Avon Lane looking south towards St Mary's (May 2019)

Returning down Avon Lane towards Saltford's Conservation Area

Southern end of Avon Lane looking East towards the Cotswolds ridge (February 2022)

St Mary's Churchyard, in the centre of Saltford's Conservation Area. A peaceful and contemplative place of high value to the local community for many generations past and present (May and November 2021)

© Saltford Parish Council, March 2024.

All photographs © Phil Harding.

All rights reserved.